SALEM, Aug. 11 .- The regatta of the Eastern Yacht Club to-day in Massachusetts Bay is the biggest yachting event of this season on these waters. This year many of the New York Yacht Club's fleet (now at Marbichead) will compete for the trophies offered.

The town of Marbichead has collected $10,000 for fireworks to be burned tonight in Crocker Park. A big bonfire will be lighted in front of the Eastern Yacht Club. The yachts at anchor will be illuminated as well as the cottages on Marbichead Neck. On Wednesday the Eastern Yacht Club will race to Gloucester, and it is probable that several New York boats will go along. The reuise, however, will come to an end to-morrow after the races are over, and the fleet will disband and disperse.
